

St. Joseph, Missouri Police Department

DIRECTIVE TYPE: GENERAL ORDER		INDEX NUMBER: GO0118
SUBJECT: Auxiliaries/Special Commissions
ISSUE DATE: May 2, 2001	REVISED: 7/16/04, 7/21/06, 05/11/10, 5/14/13,	AMENDS/RESCINDS: GO0024 of Sept., 2000
REVISIONS CONTINUED: 11/10/16		DISTRIBUTION: A (All)

I. POLICY:

It is the policy of the St. Joseph Police Department to utilize special commissions and civilian volunteers to assist the Department in its partnership with the community and other law-enforcement agencies. All persons who assume a sworn status shall abide by an oath of office to enforce the law and uphold the nation's constitution and City/State/Federal Law. Any sworn civilian position requires adherence to the Department's Code of Ethics, as well as all Department policies and procedures.

II. DEFINITONS:

A. Special Commissions: A commission to enforce city ordinances as necessary to civilian personnel or members of other agencies. Special commissions may be granted to, but are not limited to the following:

1. Buchanan County Strike Force: Members of this organization may hold a special commission for purposes of enforcing municipal ordinances, when applicable. They are not subject to the provisions set forth in this General Order, nor other Department policies and procedures. They are governed by the Buchanan County Sheriff's Department.
2. Missouri Western State University Police Department: Commissioned members of this department may hold a special commission for purposes of enforcing municipal ordinances on College grounds. They are not subject to the provisions set forth in this General Order, nor other Department policies and procedures. They are governed by the policies and/or operating procedures of Missouri Western State University.

B. Police Chaplain (Auxiliaries)

A member of the clergy who volunteers his/her time to aid in serving the community and the Department in sensitive matters that requires spiritual support (See General Order governing "Police Chaplains").

C. Police Volunteer (Auxiliaries)

A non-sworn civilian who devotes his/her time to the Department, without compensation, and provides support to the Department.

III. PROCEDURE(S) FOR POLICE VOLUNTEERS (AUXILIARIES)

- A. Non-sworn "Police Volunteers" shall be under the supervision of the Support Services Commander.
 - 1. Services performed by volunteers shall include the following:
 - a. Specific clerical functions performed throughout the Department; and
 - b. Other duties assigned by the Commander of the Support Services Division.
 - 2. All volunteers will be subject to a background check prior to their assignment.
 - 3. An interview with the Support Services Commander or his/her designee will define the following factors for the position to be filled:
 - a. Basic job description;
 - b. Training requirements;
 - c. Selection criteria and process;
 - d. Dress code - volunteers will wear casual business attire unless otherwise authorized by the Support Service Commander based on the nature of the volunteer function; and
 - e. Any other factors pertinent to the particular job function.
- B. The Support Services Commander or his/her designee shall be responsible for posting, recruiting, selecting, and training police volunteers.
 - 1. After the volunteer is properly trained, he/she will report to an appropriate supervisor for assigned duties.
 - 2. The designated Supervisor will be responsible for orienting the volunteer with his/her duties, setting up a schedule, and directly supervising his/her activities.
 - 3. If the volunteer needs additional remedial training, he/she will be referred back to the Support Services Commander. He/she will decide if the volunteer should be given additional training or terminated from service with the Department.
- C. Volunteers shall comply with all applicable Department policies and procedures.
- D. Volunteers may not appeal a final disciplinary action taken against them by the Chief of Police.
