

Hey kids . . .
Interested in archaeology?

Experience firsthand how archaeologists excavate sites
at a MOCK DIG!

11am, Saturday, June 13

OR

2pm, Sunday, July 26, 2015

Remington Nature Center

1502 MacArthur Drive

St. Joseph, MO 64505

ALL DISCOVERIES MAY BE KEPT BY THE FINDER!

Experience the proper way to excavate the site. Learn what to look for and what the items you find were used for. All participants will take home authentic Native American artifacts.

Admission Fees

$10.00 per child

$3.00 per adult

Includes admission to tour
the nature center.

WEAR OLD CLOTHES AND PLAN ON GETTING DIRTY!

The dig will take place in an area under actual excavation conditions; this is a rain or shine event. Sunscreen, mosquito repellent and bottled water suggested. Bring a garden trowel if you have one.

The dig is ideal for children 6-12 years old; exceptions may be made. Each child MUST be accompanied by an adult. Space is limited, RSVP and advanced payment are required; due to the nature of this program, refunds will not be issued . Please contact Andrea McCoy, Nature Center Manager, at 816-676-3204 or email amccoy@ci.st-joseph.mo.us for reservations and more information.

